WDHA Open Show and Futurity Festival

The Open Show/Futurity Festival was once again a successful, fun weekend. Judge Jane Engers was wonderful to work with. Standing in center ring with her it was easy to see why she placed every class the way she did.

I thought our show photographer Kathy Cahoon did a great job too. I know the arena at Sunnyview is not easy to get good pictures in, and it was a huge challenge as a first show "back in the ring."

Entries were about the same as last year and preliminary numbers have the show making a decent profit. Unfortunately, not enough people took advantage of the Food Fiesta so we will most likely not be offering it again. Contact Heather DeVooght or Lori Adams with your ideas for a fun Saturday night event to take it's place next year.

Thanks again to all who entered their horses into the WDHA Futurity and Maturity, and those who just came to show in the open classes. It is sad to see the number of horses being bred go down each year, but in these hard times it is understandable. I look forward to the day when things turn around for the better.

Many thanks to our Show Managers Heather DeVooght and Lori Adams, Announcer Kristin Urban and Ring Clerk Rita Lemke, Ring & Gate Helpers Paula Roberts and Don Borth, Barn & Grounds Manager Curtis Daye, and Stall Cleaners Polly Bonfigt and Neil Kienast. My apologies if I forgot anyone. A special thanks to Dennis and Beth Grubba for always being ready to lend a hand.
